First: Monetary Policy

SAMA has been adopting a monetary policy aimed at achieving price stability, supporting the various economic sectors in line with domestic and international economic developments, and assisting domestic banks to perform their financing role in the domestic economy.

1.1 Rate of Return and Cash Reserve

In Q2 2019, SAMA decided to keep the reverse repo rate at 2.50 percent and the repo rate at 3 percent.

SAMA’s average daily repo transactions stood at SAR 1.02 billion against SAR 33.7 million in Q1. Average daily reverse repo transactions stood at SAR 47.5 billion compared to SAR 63.6 billion in Q1.

The cash reserve ratio was maintained at 7.0 percent for demand deposits and 4.0 percent for time and savings deposits.

1.2 Interest Rates

To encourage domestic banks to increase lending, SAMA continued to maintain the limit of weekly subscription in SAMA bills for domestic banks at SAR 3.0 billion. The three-month Saudi interbank offered rate (SIBOR) declined to 2.82 percent. The three-month interest rate differential between the riyal and the dollar was about 32 basis points in favor of the riyal, compared to 24 basis points in Q1. As for the riyal exchange rate against the dollar, it remained unchanged at its official peg rate of SAR 3.75.

As regards foreign exchange swaps, SAMA did not make any swap transaction with domestic banks.
