25. All appointments to senior positions including as members of the Board of Directors and its committees shall be made in accordance with SAMA's Requirements for Appointments to Senior Positions in the Financial Institutions.

26. The nomination and remuneration policy followed by the Company shall have formal and rigorous standards and procedures to continuously monitor and assess the fitness and propriety of Board members, members of Board committees, members of Senior Management, in accordance with the requirements of Article (23) of this Regulation, and shall immediately notify SAMA of any information or circumstances that may be relevant to assessment of fitness and propriety of these persons within a maximum period of (3) three business days from the day of obtaining the information or from the day of change occurrence.

Independence

27. The governance structure of the company shall support independent decision making throughout the organization by, for example, establishing clear separation of duties between the Board and the Management, enhancing the independence of control functions, and controlling the risk of conflict of interest.
28. The Board should leverage the services of independent external parties to provide assurance on the adequacy and effectiveness of the governance structure and processes of the Company, and on other technical areas, where the Board might lack relevant expertise.

Conflict of Interest

29. The Company shall take reasonable measures to identify cases of potential conflict of interest and have clear written procedures for dealing with those cases in a fair and transparent manner.

30. Members of the Board and Senior Management shall not have any interest, directly or indirectly, in the Company’s business and contracts, without a prior authorization from the general assembly, to be renewed each year. The activities to be performed through general bidding, where the member is the best bidder, shall constitute an exception to this rule, subject to SAMA’s non-objection. Members of the Board and Senior Management shall notify the Board of any personal interest they may have in the business and in contracts entered into by the Company. The notification shall be noted in the minutes of the Board meeting. Board members with a personal interest in specific Company’s businesses or contracts shall not vote, neither in the general assembly nor in the Board meeting, on the resolution to be adopted with regards to their personal interests. The Chairman of the Board shall notify the general assembly, when convened, of the activities and contracts

28. ينبغي لمجلس الإدارة الاستفادة من خدمات الأطراف الخارجية المستقلة في التأكد من كفاءة وفعالية هيكل وإجراءات الحوكمة بالشركة والجوانب الفنية الأخرى التي لا يكون لمجلس الإدارة معرفة جيدة وخبرة فيها.

29. يجب أن تتخذ الشركة تدابير معقولة لإكتشاف الحالات المحتملة لتعارض المصالح وأن يكون لديها إجراءات واضحة ومكتوبة للتعامل مع هذه الحالات ومعالجتها بعدل وشفافية.

30. يجب أن لا يكونعضو مجلس الإدارة أو الإدارة العليا مصلحة شخصية، مباشرة أو غير مباشرة، في الأعمال والعقود التي تتم لحساب الشركة بغير ترخيص من الجمعية العامة يُبدد كل سنة، وتستثني من ذلك الأعمال التي تتم عن طريق المناقصة العامة إذا كان العضو صاحب العرض الأفضل، وعلى عضو مجلس الإدارة أو الإدارة العليا إبلاغ المجلس بما له من مصلحة شخصية في الأعمال والعقود التي تتم لحساب الشركة، ويُثبت هذا التبلغ في محضر اجتماع المجلس. ولا يجوز لعضو مجلس الإدارة ذي المصلحة الاشتراك في التصويت على القرار الذي يصدر في هذا الشأن في الجمعية العامة أو في اجتماع مجلس الإدارة. ويلغ رئيس مجلس الإدارة الجمعية العامة عند اتخاذه عن where a member of the Board and Senior Management may have a personal interest and their amounts, and shall attach to such notification a special report prepared by the Company’s external auditors.

31. No member of the Board or Senior Management shall, without a prior authorization of the general assembly, to be renewed annually, participate in any activity which may likely compete with the activities of the Company, or trade in any branch of the activities carried out by the Company.

32. Members of the Board and Senior Management who own an interest in an Insurance Service Provider (e.g. brokers, agents, etc.) shall:

   a) disclose to the Board their interest in the insurance-related company, in writing, at the earliest opportunity

   b) never encourage or solicit dealings with the company in which they hold an interest

   c) refrain from voting in decisions related to dealings with the company in which they hold an interest

Additionally, the Company shall notify the general assembly, when convened, of all businesses with any insurance-related company in which a member of the Board or Senior Management has an interest, and shall attach to such notification a special report prepared by the company’s external auditors.
33. The Chairman shall provide the general assembly with details of insurance contracts in which members of the Board or Senior Management or their related parties have an interest, including the line of business, size, and associated losses, if any.

Remuneration

34. The Company’s articles of association shall specify the remuneration for the Chairman and Board members for their services. Board members remuneration can be modified only by the extraordinary general assembly.

35. The Board shall propose the remuneration package for the Board, based on the recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and rules and with the conditions set by the general assembly, subject to the approval by the general assembly.

The Company shall ensure that all written details of the proposed remuneration and considerations are accessible to the Shareholders prior to the general assembly at which the remuneration and considerations shall be put to voting.

36. The Company shall have a remuneration policy, as per Article (11) of this Regulation, covering all levels and categories of employees, whether regular or contractual. The remuneration policy shall address the following at minimum:

a) Objectives of the compensation scheme (with focus on promoting effective risk management and achieving financial soundness and stability of the Company)
b) Structure of the compensation system (including key determinants of compensation, alignment of compensation with risk taking, etc.)

c) Determinants of the mix of remuneration components (fixed and variable components; cash and non-cash benefits, etc.)

d) Linking compensation with performance

37. The Board shall be responsible to ensure that the compensation level and structure:

a) are fair

b) are aligned with the Company’s objectives

c) encourage prudent behaviors and does not induce taking high risk transactions to achieve short-term profits, and it complies with the Company’s risk management policy approved by the Board

d) do not cause any conflict of interest that might negatively impact the Company’s performance

e) achieve the interests of policyholders, shareholders and the Company’s long-term objectives

38. The Company shall have a performance measurement system in place to evaluate and measure the performance of its employees at various levels, in an objective and formal manner. The performance measurement of Senior Management, in particular, shall be based on the longer-term performance of the Company, and not based on only one year’s performance.
39. The nomination and remuneration committee shall ensure that an annual remuneration review (internally through the internal audit function or externally commissioned by a specialized firm) is conducted independently of executive management.

40. The remuneration structure of employees working in control functions (such as internal audit, and compliance) shall be designed to ensure objectivity and independence of these functions. In this regard, it should be ensured that the executive management of the company is not intervening in the process of performance measurement and compensation determination of such employees.

41. Members of the Board and Senior Management (except sales managers) shall not receive any commission or rewards on sales-related activities (e.g., production). Furthermore, no variable component of the compensation for members of the Board and Senior Management (except for sales managers) shall be directly based on premium volume.

Section 1: Shareholders

42. The Company shall provide shareholders with comprehensive, adequate, accurate, and timely information to enable them to exercise their rights efficiently, and ensure that all shareholders receive equitable treatment.
43. The company should enable shareholders to be briefed on the minutes of the General Assembly.

44. The Company shall take available procedures to encourage minority shareholders and non-institutional shareholders to fulfill their roles as shareholders of the Company.

45. Shareholders must be granted the opportunity to communicate their opinions and concerns to the Board and Senior Management on a regular basis (e.g. through the general assembly).

Section 2: Board of Directors

Chairman of the Board

46. The Board must choose a Non-Executive Director as Chairman of the Board, and also the Board may select a non-executive member as Vice-Chairman (after obtaining “no-objection” from SAMA).

47. The Board shall authorize the Chairman to organize its activities and grant him or her the necessary powers to discharge his or her responsibilities.

48. The Company’s code of corporate governance shall define the roles and responsibilities of the Chairman.

In addition to any other regulatory or supervisory requirements and to the duties of Board members, the duties of the Chairman shall include but not be limited to the following:
a) Organizing the Board’s activities, including setting the agenda for Board meetings in consultation with the CEO and other Board members, presiding over Board meetings, and overseeing the process of providing the Board with information and reports.

b) Representing the Company before judicial bodies and supervising the relationships between the Board and internal and external parties.

c) Supporting the Board’s efforts in promoting higher standards of corporate governance and ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations at all times.

49. The Chairman’s responsibilities shall not overlap with those of the CEO. The responsibilities of the Chairman of the Board shall be restricted to his or her supervisory role and shall not extend to the executive responsibilities reserved for the CEO.

50. It is prohibited to conjoin the position of the Chairman of the Board with any other executive position in the company, such as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or the managing director or the general manager.

51. The Chairman shall ensure that the Board conducts its activities responsibly, without unduly interfering with the Company’s operational activities.

52. The Board can, by a majority vote of all Board members, dismiss its elected Chairman at any time.
Members of the Board

53. The Board shall be of an efficient size. The number of Board members must not be more than eleven (11) or less than five (5) members on a permanent basis.

54. The Board composition shall reflect sufficient representation of Non-executive Independent Members, and in all cases, Non-executive Independent Members shall not be less than two (2), or a third of the Board, whichever is greater.

55. Members of the Board shall collectively have the appropriate diversity with respect to qualifications, knowledge, experience, and skills in the various areas of the Company’s business and operations. In addition, each individual Board member must possess the appropriate level of qualifications, knowledge, experience, skills, and the integrity to effectively perform his or her role and discharge his or her responsibilities.

56. A Board member shall not be a member of a board of another local insurance and/or reinsurance company, or any other board committees, or occupying a leadership position in such companies.

57. The Company shall have formal and transparent policies, standards and procedures for Board nomination, which are approved by the general assembly and communicated to SAMA.
58. The Board nomination process shall take into account the following:

t) Allowing sufficient time for receiving nomination proposals for Board memberships

t) Reviewing nomination proposals for Board memberships by the nomination and remuneration committee and documenting any findings and recommendations

v) Obtaining SAMA’s written non-objection prior to the appointment of any Board member

w) Providing shareholders with adequate information on the candidates’ qualifications and relationships with the Company prior to voting

x) Applying the Cumulative Voting Method when voting in the general assembly for appointing Board members

59. The Company must notify SAMA when a nomination proposal for Board membership has been rejected and must specify the reasons for the rejection.

60. The number of Board candidates presented to the general assembly for voting shall exceed the number of available seats in order - to provide the general assembly the opportunity to select among several candidates.

The Board can engage the services of an independent specialized external party to identify additional candidates for Board membership when the number of Board candidates is insufficient.
